Online Gardening Workshops

PHATCROPS

We're digging our online gardening workshops.

Our host is Sartteka Am Ab Nefer, lead gardener at PHATCROPS, advocate of all that is plant-based, and champion of herbalism and horticulture. Sartteka promotes growing your own food and making smart landscaping choices.

The biweekly workshops began in January and are set to continue through March 1.

PHATCROPS stands for Providing Healthy Alternatives to Communities Reclaiming Our People's Sustainability.

Opening the Archives for Sikes' 150th

To celebrate the 150th anniversary of the historic farmstead, the Friends of Sikes Adobe are publishing peeks into their archives.

In this treasured image, Eliza is shown on what may have been the day of her wedding to Zenas Sikes in 1853.

Many of the Sikes family photographs in the Friends' archive were obtained by Ron Hall, a volunteer and genealogist who authored the history of the family.

The Sikes Adobe Historic Farmstead is open for public tours at 10:30 a.m. on Sundays.

Valentine's Tea cancelled

The Friends of Sikes Adobe regret to announce the cancelation of Valentine's Teas traditionally held this month. Organizers look forward to returning to this and other great traditions when health authorities deem it is safe to do so.

Throughout 2022, the Friends plan to host other events to celebrate the 150th anniversary of Sikes Adobe.
