Campaign for Del Dios

$322K Fundraising Mission Accomplished!

Thanks to your generosity, the Campaign for Del Dios has reached its $322,000 goal!

With your help, the San Dieguito River Valley Conservancy now holds title to 117 acres of habitat overlooking Lake Hodges. We have wasted no time in deploying wildlife cameras and tracking animals' movements along this important corridor.

In just three months, nearly 200 of you have supported our campaign. Your gift of natural habitat is permanent and we thank you very much.

Our Awesome Donors

Gifts of all sizes made the Campaign for Del Dios a success. To all of our donors, thanks so much!

Coast to Crest Trail Challenge

We loved finding new places to hike...we especially loved Boden Canyon and the cows at Santa Ysabel Preserve.

— Cheryl Lindeman and daughter Hagen Lindeman, 12

My mom and I were able to go to places we had never been before and see many beautiful sights! Thank you for inspiring us to get outdoors, especially during these quarantine times.

— Kelly Lin

Thank you for keeping us rooted in the great outdoors.

— Adrienne Steele

You can do this!

Are you ready to lace up and join the ranks of the Coast to Crest Trail Challengers?

There could not be a better time to get outdoors!

River Park News

Welcome aboard, Ranger Sarah!

Introducing Ranger Sarah Stevens, who joined the San Dieguito River Park team in January. Though new to San Diego, Sarah is not new to parks. She spent three years as a ranger for Maryland State Parks before making the military move to San Diego with her husband and step-daughter in 2019. Sarah spent her childhood camping with her family and her high school summers in the woods of Virginia as a scout camp counselor. In that role, she inspired passion for outdoor recreation. In 2013, she earned a Bachelor's Degree in Recreation and Parks Management from Frostburg State University. During her spare time, Sarah enjoys knitting, household projects, hiking with her dog, listening to podcasts and exploring new places. Welcome aboard, Sarah!
